

Senior Designer, Sales & Project Manager

Envision and Inspire — Design and Create — Present and Sell — Manage and Deliver

Do you naturally envision innovative landscapes inspired by the topography before you? Can you take that vision, turn it into a compelling design, and confidently present it to clients? Does seeing your designs come to life alongside our talented field crews excite you?

If you answered yes, this might be the perfect role for you.

About Us

Jenron Creative Landscapes has grown steadily over the past 20 years—from a two-person operation to a team of over 80 skilled professionals (both contracted and employed).

We're united by a shared passion: creating beautiful, functional, and inspiring outdoor spaces.

Our continued success comes from the creativity and dedication of our people. Now, we're looking for a Senior Designer who brings next-level thinking—someone who can help clients envision the full potential of their landscapes with innovative designs, modern materials, and inspired concepts.

What You'll Do

- Meet with clients to understand their goals, vision, and style.
 - Design and present conceptual and detailed landscape plans that inspire and excite.
 - Prepare estimates and manage projects from concept through completion.
 - Collaborate with field crews to ensure your designs are implemented to the highest standards.
 - Manage the client's expectations and requests from start to finish, including walkthroughs and invoicing
 - Stay current on design trends, sustainable practices, and new materials.

What We're Looking For

- Creativity: Think beyond the ordinary to deliver standout, award-worthy designs.
- Innovation: Constantly explore new materials, ideas, and approaches to landscape design.

- Experience: 2+ years in high-end residential landscape design and construction project management. AutoCAD experience required.
 - Leadership & Teamwork: Build up those around you—clients, coworkers, and the community.
 - Sales & Charisma: Confidently present, quote, and manage the projects you design.
 - Strong Work Ethic: We take pride in quality, efficiency, and excellence.
 - Positivity: We love what we do. A can-do attitude is essential.

Why You'll Love Working Here

- Flexible hours and supportive work culture
 - Competitive wages
 - Extended health and dental coverage (after 3 months)
 - Mentorship and educational assistance programs
 - Award-winning company with an impeccable safety record
 - Referral and performance bonus programs
